

STARS AND STRIPES, SOLDIER PAPER, CONTROLLED BY DEMOCRATS; G. O. P. CONTROLS LEGION WEEKLY

Removal Of Members Of Pike County Election Board Is Being Demanded

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 24.—(By The Associated Press)—Secretary of State Smith today received a petition from Joseph Smith, a taxpayer of Waverly, Pike county, asking for the removal of Dr. George H. Nye and Stewart West, members of the Pike county election board and A. S. Keechle, clerk of the board, on charges of fraudulently and illegally casting votes at the recent primary election.

The petition states that West and Keechle aided Nye, and charges that some prisoners in the county jail were voted by Nye under the absent voters law. Dr. Nye in 1911 pleaded guilty to accepting a bribe while a member of the Ohio house of representatives, but sentence was suspended.

A second affidavit filed by Philip Schwartz of Waverly, makes a general charge of incompetency against the entire board, naming in addition to Nye, Stewart and Keechle, members, G. S. Hill and H. C. Seyler.

Two of the alleged fraudulent votes cast were by Bruce Depugh and Andy Wilson, in the general election of 1918. Both are alleged to have been confined in the county jail at the time. Other fraudulent votes cast are said to have been cast by S. S. Manbevers, Jacob Darst and Fred Wilber at the August primaries, 1920.

Smith's affidavit also asserts that Dr. Nye is commissioner of public health of Pike county and therefore is ineligible to hold both public offices.

Secretary of State Smith has not yet set a date for hearing of the charges.

STEWART DENIES USE OF PUBLIC FUNDS TO GO TO DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—THE STARS AND STRIPES, a soldier publication, controlled by the Democratic national committee and THE AMERICAN LEGION WEEKLY, another soldier publication, is controlled by the Republican committee, Joseph I. Heffernan, secretary-treasurer of THE STARS AND STRIPES PUBLISHING COMPANY, testified today before the senate campaign investigating committee.

The right of Senator Edge, Republican of New Jersey, to participate in an investigation by the senate campaign investigating committee into the political activities of the "Stars and Stripes," a soldier publication, was challenged before the committee today by Joseph I. Heffernan, secretary of the publishing company. He said he had information that Senator Edge was involved in "some scheme, whatever it was, against us."

Heffernan previously had testified that his paper, despite "a bona fide circulation" of 100,000 had been unable to obtain advertising. He said he had information that Senator Edge recently had participated in conference with men interested in preventing the "Stars and Stripes" from obtaining advertising.

Senator Edge demanded the name of the person who had informed Heffernan, and was finally told that Richard S. Jones, an associate in the Stars and Stripes office was the man. Jones was ordered subpoenaed.

Before Heffernan challenged Senator Edge, he had said that attempts to purchase the service paper had been made by a man named Waldo, who he said was "connected with the Duponts, who are concerned with foreign language newspapers."

Waldo, the witness said, had told members of the Stars and Stripes that if they did not sell out they would get no advertising and be bankrupt in six months.

The witness named several whom he said his information showed had been active in "the scheme" against the paper and in conference with Senator Edge. Senator Edge said he knew only one of the men named upon by Heffernan and testified that a man named Waldo, purporting to represent the Dupont interests, had sought to obtain control of the Stars and Stripes, and when he failed to do so he threatened the publication would receive no advertising from large interests. The witness added that the paper had been unable to obtain advertising from such interests.

Heffernan told the committee that ten of us who got out the paper on the other side had organized the publishing company here and owned most of the stock. Efforts were made, he said, to prevent the use of the name, among others opposing it being Secretary of War Baker.

When organizing the paper, the witness said, he went to Democratic national headquarters as he wanted to get some assurance that congress would not pass a law prohibiting the use of the name.

"I saw there Mrs. E. M. Parks, told her of the situation and asked for some help," he said.

"She was the secretary of W. O. Jamieson, director of finance for the Democratic national committee, wasn't she?" asked Senator Edge, Republican of New Jersey.

"I think so," Heffernan continued. "We came to an arrangement by which 100,000 shares of the corporation stock were issued. The ten of us engaged in the publication took 40,000 shares and 50,000 were assigned to her. She has so far furnished $15,000 for the publication."

"Does that come from Mrs. Parks personally or the national committee?" Chairman Kenyon asked.

"I have no way of knowing," Heffernan replied.

"So we have a situation by which this paper is controlled by the Democratic national committee?" asked Chairman Kenyon.

"Yes."

"And Mr. Dupont of the Republican national committee, is endeavoring to get that control?" asked Senator Reed, Democrat of Missouri.

"Yes," Heffernan replied.

The witness then declared the "American Legion Weekly" is controlled by the Republican national committee.

"How can you make that statement?" demanded Senator Edge.

Heffernan mentioned Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and other organizers of the American Legion and declared that Scott C. Bone, director of publicity for the Republican national committee, had stated that the Republican committee controlled the legion weekly.

Restaurant, Hotel Keepers On The Carpet

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Managers of five leading hotels and of two restaurant chains have been summoned to appear today before the city council's committee on living costs. An announcement by Chairman Max Adamowski said that they would be asked to explain "why their prices have not been reduced in proportion to the drop in wholesale food prices."

At a conference last night, Alderman Adamowski asked, E. J. Stevens, manager of another big hotel had promised "an immediate downward revision in prices."

"We have the facts and figures to prove to these gentlemen," the alderman added, "that they have been profiteering. We believe that they will agree that the war is over and reduce their prices. If they do not they face a withering combination of prosecution and public opinion."

The alderman declared that "failure to answer the summons would result in complete investigation of profits made by the firms, followed by a public announcement of the figures and a request that the firms be boycotted until prices are reduced, or a representative is sent before the committee."

"Potatoes have dropped from 30.50 a hundred pounds to $2.50, yet an order of potatoes still costs from fifteen to forty cents," he added.

"The same can be said of tomatoes, corn and beans. If these prices are put down where they belong, less meat will be eaten and the public will get relief from that source. Food prices are due for a drop and food purveyors will accept the situation gracefully if they are wise."

"Rube" Benton Alleges Five White Sox Players Were Paid $100,000 To Throw Series

(CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Interest in the grand jury investigation into alleged "throwing" of baseball games by disreputable players switched today from Chicago to Cleveland.

With the grand jury adjourned until next Tuesday, investigators, baseball magnates and fans are watching the White Sox, for their victory or defeat in the series with the league leading Indians at Cleveland may decide the future course of the investigation. If the White Sox win today they will displace Cleveland and lead the league by half a game.

Sam Johnson, president of the American league, is reported to have received rumors that gamblers are trying to create an impression that the White Sox dare not win the pennant. According to statements quoted Mr. Johnson, published by papers here, the gamblers of gamblers which, it has been charged, "bought" last year's world series by paying $100,000 to five White Sox players, threatens to expose the plot if the Chicago team wins the race.

Mr. Johnson, it was announced today, will be recalled by the grand jury next week, to tell what he knows about this alleged blackmail plot. Other witnesses include President Heffernan of the National league and possibly George M. Cohan, New York theatrical producer, and Alvin Karpis, of Chicago. Cohan is reported to have lost $20,000 in the 1919 world series, and Karpis $30,000.

(CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Investigation of a report that George M. Cohan, actor and musical composer, had bet large sums bet on last year's world series was understood today to be under consideration by the Cook county grand jury, which next Tuesday will resume gathering testimony of charges that the series was "fixed" so that the Cincinnati Reds would win. Published reports place Cohan's losses at $20,000 and Karpis' at $30,000.

In the inquiry into "fixing" charges, it is pushed to the limit, according to a statement made by Henry H. Friedman, foreman of the grand jury who declared that he was "checked at his witlessness so far revealed."

Sales Attorney Hogue, according to a statement received from him in New York, declared he "had no doubt" that the 1919 series was crooked and at least one Chicago player was crooked.

He added that a report that Cohan and Karpis had information regarding the crookedness of the series would be closely investigated by his office.

Reds Given Clean Bill

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 24.—The man named Hahn, mentioned by pitcher "Rube" Benton as the one who told him that the last world series was "fixed" could not be located today.

President August Herrmann, of the Cincinnati baseball club and former chairman of the national commission, said today: "The Reds have been given a clean bill; they were not involved in any irregularities during the world series of 1919."

John E. Bruce, secretary of the national commission, said: "I can say truthfully that I never heard a word of suspicion against any member of the Cincinnati baseball club."

jury yesterday of being offered a bribe to lose a game, naming "Buck" Herzog, Hal Chase and "Hime" Zimmerman in connection with the alleged offer, in a statement published today, named four White Sox players as having been named to him by an alleged member of a baseball gambling ring in a discussion of alleged "fixing" of the 1919 series.

These players, Benton declared were Eddie Cicotte, pitcher of the first team, Claude Williams, pitcher in the second, Chick Gandil, first baseman and Hal Fehh, center fielder. According to Benton's statement the players were mentioned by a Cincinnati "betting commission" named Hahn.

Benton said that Hahn told him five White Sox players demanded $100,000 for "throwing" the series and that this was paid to them by a group of Pittsburgh gamblers.

Benton said he was sure Cicotte would name the Pittsburgh gamblers who he said he would give the information to the grand jury.

Benton in his story of the alleged "fixing" of the world series last fall, said:

"Last fall, after the series, a man named Hahn, who hails from Cincinnati and is known as a betting commissioner, visited me at my home in Clinton, N. C."

"One morning while we were out hunting, I asked him about the world series. He said the series was not

LUMBER PRICES HIT TOBOGGAN

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 24.—Lumber prices tobogganed here today when a large local firm announced a twenty percent reduction in retail lumber prices. Company officials admitted that Henry Ford's action on the price of automobiles inspired the decrease.

Wholesale lumber prices have been declining slowly here for the past three months because of curtailment of exports, a decrease in industrial use of lumber, the fall-off in house building and the stringent money market.

Other Toledo lumber dealers are expected to announce similar price tumbles.

Johnson To Fight For Revision Of Methods Of Selecting Presidential Nominees

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright by Times Publishing Co.)
SACRAMENTO, Calif., Sept. 23.—Senator Hiram Johnson may be out slumping for the Harding Coolidge ticket but he has not forgotten national convention at Chicago last June and just as soon as this campaign is over, the California Senator means to lead the fight for the revision of the methods by which candidates for the presidency are chosen.

Hiram Johnson has the notion that the people ought to have something to do with the nomination for the presidency so that the public will not be confronted with a choice between inferior men. He thinks that the primary system is both logical and democratic. And while he is expressing to opinion about the persons nominated in the last conventions of the big political parties, he is inclined to the belief that the public would not be much worse off if the primary system instead of the convention method. The California Senator might tell an interesting story about what took place at Chicago, if he were disposed to do so. He could for instance, reveal the absolute pledge given him by other leaders at the Chicago convention, that when the rest was taken on Saturday afternoon it was with the understanding that an opportunity would be given all concerned to agree upon a man that the progressive wing of the Republican party could support wholeheartedly. But except in so far as you might emphasize the point now and then, the controversies of the last convention will not be revived. Senator Johnson's aim is to get a law passed by Congress that will establish presidential preference primaries as something more substantial than they are today.

The spectacle of both parties nominating men who hardly figured in the primaries with the expressed wish of the people in several states were considered (Continued on Page Eight)

Big Break In Wheat Prices

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 24.—Big breaks in the price of wheat took place today largely as a result of speculation for a general cut in food costs. The much of values in wheat amounted to as much as 12 3/4 cents a bushel, and the market closed in a semi-dramatic condition. December delivery at $2.25 to $2.25 1/2, and March $2.15 to $2.16.

In sympathy with the weakness of wheat, other grain markets also gave way, and both corn and oats fell to the lowest price levels yet for the 1920 crop.

Heretofore, wheat has been advancing despite attacks in the price of other grain. The chief reason ascribed for such strength was Europe's need for wheat for export to Europe. Today, however, the stimulus of export business appeared to have lost its influence, and especially near the end of the day the wheat market tumbled wildly downward.

About 100 members of the Chamber of Commerce, interested in a new hotel for Portsmouth, were present Thursday evening at the C. of C. supper held in the basement of United Brethren church. After the Hotel committee had made a report on its work to date, a motion was made by Judge A. Z. Hale that the committee proceed at once to do those things necessary to raise in this community $420,000 of the total sum needed to build a modern hotel in Portsmouth, this step being deemed necessary before outside capital can be obtained. It is estimated that the hotel building can be constructed for $300,000. The furnishings would cost about $175,000 more. These figures are outside of what would have to be paid for a site.

Manager J. B. Wiles announced the chairman of the meeting, Arthur Bannan, who was chairman of the Hotel committee. Mr. Bannan then read the committee's report which showed that the committee had held 10 meetings since it had been named in February this year. Mr. Bannan explained that the new hotel proposition was the one that received the most votes when the membership filled in questionnaires on the program of work for the C. of C. This one plan seemed to interest more people than anything else, and the Hotel Committee was among the first named.

The chairman then told of the first meetings and how the members discussed what size hotel should be constructed, when to be built and cost.

This was followed up by visits from various architects who presented propositions for giving the committee plans and estimates. After several meetings of this kind an architect, E. A. Weber and Bros. of Cincinnati was named. On the advice of Mr. Weber who reported that on account of the financial market at that time, the matter was dropped for a while. A short time later the architect reported that he had conferred with outside capital and that he thought it was now time to start work on the proposition again. Mr. Weber had promised to attend to such matters as seeking the outside capital and this work was left in his hands. It was decided then to recommend the building of a new and modern hotel financed all or in part by outside capital. Mr. Bannan then said that a hotel is a civic and social need and a city without a modern hotel is like a home without adequate guest rooms. A hotel advertises a city to a certain extent and it is also a community meeting place. We must have a new hotel if we are to attract new enterprises here for a modern hotel is the first essential of a modern town.

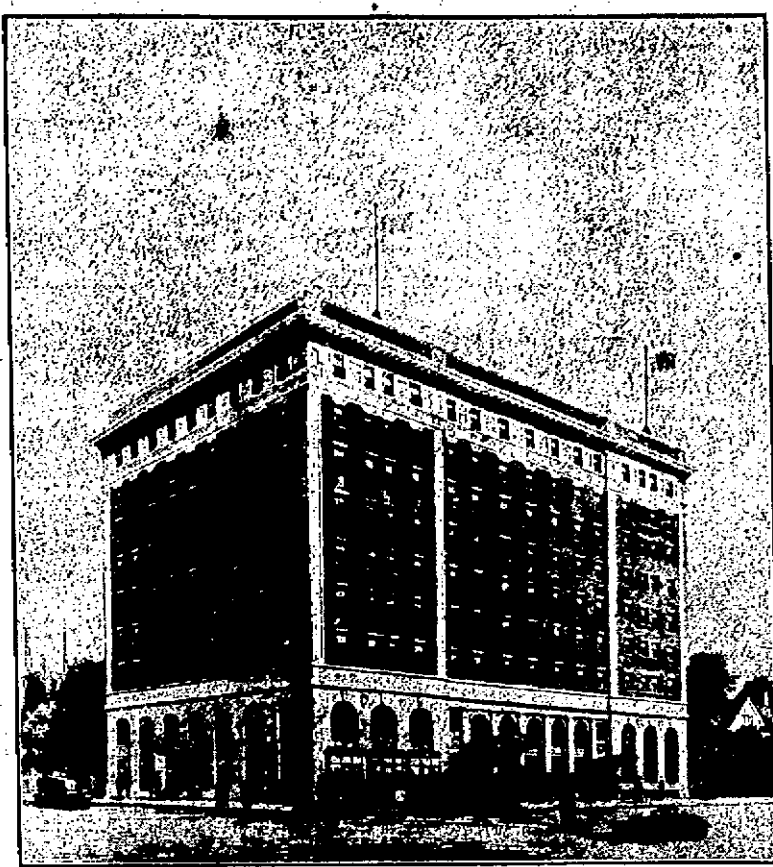

Every dollar invested in it will be turned up with a dividend. The merchants and manufacturers find they are losing on account of the lack of such a hotel, for many conventions and big meetings cannot be held here on account of lack of hotel facilities. The committee recommends that an organization be formed to sell the proposition of stock necessary to obtain outside capital. Then a hotel company should be organized a plan of publicity prepared and a list of prospective stockholders be named.

Mr. Bannan then explained that such a building as wanted would cost about $300,000 and the furnishings $175,000 additional. It is estimated that a hotel will cost about $500 per room. This is separate from what a site will cost. F. J. Manning then took the floor and said that he did not think it the time to build with building prices so high and said that they should wait until prices tumbled. Mr. Bannan answered saying that he did not think prices would ever come down but would continue to go up. Then the motion was made that the committee take steps to raise $20,000 as the first active step in obtaining a new hotel.

Mr. Bannan then spoke a few words on a hotel site and now a site committee had failed in its effort to reach a definite decision on site and that this would be a matter to be taken care of after a hotel company was formed and part of the stock sold. He also explained how a Mr. Olmstead, a hotel owner and promoter had inquired into the new hotel proposition here relative to having the new hotel building and furnishing it besides paying a return on the investment in the building and on the stock sold.

The Less You Pay For A Piano Or Player Piano The More Critical You Should Be

The man who has a thousand dollars to spend for a piano or player piano is not likely to get a poor one. It then is mostly a matter of tone rather than intrinsic value. The man who wants a piano for a couple of hundred or so has to look sharp. Most cheap pianos are made solely to sell—not to enhance the reputation of their makers.

We court the most critical investigation of the Baldwin Co., Pianos and Player Pianos. They are made by the House of Baldwin, an organization that produces only the finest instruments and does not know how to make an inferior product. THEY MAKE ONLY INSTRUMENTS THAT THEY ARE WILLING TO GUARANTEE.

Their selling direct to homes through their factory representatives cuts cost to rock bottom. We are one of these direct factory representatives. In any of the Baldwin Co. Pianos or Player Pianos we can give you more actual piano value at the price than you have ever hoped to secure. Come in and try them. Liberal allowance on your old piano or player piano. Terms to suit you.

THEATRICAL

At The Sun
"The best ever" was the verdict of those who attended the Sun theatre Thursday and saw the initial presentation of "In Honolulu," the musical comedy offering for the last half of this week.

The comedy is more irresistible, the scenic settings are more elaborate and beautiful, the costumes are more gorgeous, the music more tuneful and the dances more novel and graceful than in any extravaganza yet offered by Johnny Lane and his boys of captivating "Triangle Girls." The new vaudeville specialties presented during the course of "In Honolulu" also are more pleasing than heretofore.

More Out When Hyomei Moves In
No stomach dosing. Hyomei is made chiefly of oil of eucalyptus taken from the eucalyptus forest of inland Australia and combined with other excellent antiseptics.

In inland Australia the atmosphere is so impregnated with balsam thrown out by the eucalyptus trees that germs do not thrive, and in consequence coughs, colds, catarrh and other nose and throat afflictions are practically unknown.

Red Cross Meeting Is Success

One of the most splendidly constructed meetings ever held by the Washington Township Red Cross Committee was that at the home of Miss Minerva Morris Wednesday evening. Both visitors and committee members took active part in the discussion of the evening. Frank Malone was elected chairman of the committee for the coming year with Mr. Eliza Cook as Vice-Chairman and Mrs. Alice Adams as Secretary.

Some of the other members were Mrs. Myra Anderson, Miss Lucille Rapp, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Doll. Misses Rapp and Morris and Mr. Gro. Mitchell were appointed as a committee to visit the proper authorities to learn the status of the Washington Township Community Building; just when they could expect a construction to begin and why the present delay.

Mrs. Myra Anderson, Mrs. Andrew Smith and Mr. Chas. Doll were appointed to arrange transportation for all the children of that township to come to Portsmouth to see "Geo. Cio."

Miss Morris with six assistants whom she might select, one for each school district, was requested to be on a health committee assisting in securing the children in their districts, when medical or dental care might be needed and co-operate with the public health nurses and their follow-up work.

The regular meeting night of this committee will be the third Wednesday of each month. It is hoped soon to organize a Community Club in Washington Township which would comprise as active members, every person of sixteen years of age, resident in that section.

Winners In Window Contest

The judges of the window displays for Press-Up-Week announced the following winners:

First: The Marting Bros. Company.
Second: E. J. Starbier.
Third: Geo. Abroad.

In explanation, the judges wish to say that in the selection of first prize they were almost unanimous in their choice, while such was not the case in the matter of the lower prizes. It was only after considerable difficulty that the committee finally arrived at these decisions, and which are the result of conferring together on three different occasions also Tuesday evening. We trust that the public and the merchants who may differ from us in the above selections will please be sparing enough to realize our difficult task.

Our chief regret is that there were not more prizes to award on this occasion and in the absence of same desire to confer honorable mention upon the following windows according to our unbiased judgment:

Mrs. Anne Rice; M. Lehman and Bro.; Otto Zosler; General Service Company; The Bon Ton; The Critteron Clothing Co.; James Distel and Kay-Graham Co.

Mails And Faber Likely To Go To Mound Today

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 24.—Encouraged by their easy victory yesterday over the Cleveland Indians, when they cut the latter's lead to half a game, the Chicago White Sox were determined to win today's game and replace the local team at the head of the American league championship race.

The Indians were not the least discouraged over their defeat, the first in eight games. They were confident that Walter Mathis, their southpaw pitcher, would stop the Sox batsmen, and that the end of the game would again find them leading by a game and a half.

Urban Faber was slated to do the pitching for Chicago.

The Housewives Burden

When a woman is almost distracted from overwork, her home is in disorder, crying children, and on top of all is suffering from backache, bearing down pains, or some other form of feminine ills, then she should remember that hundreds of women in just her condition have been restored to health and regained their youthful strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and not rest until she has given it a fair trial.

Proof that it Restored the Health of These Two Women

Cairo, Ill.—"Some time ago I got so bad with female trouble that I thought I would have to be operated on. I had a bad displacement. My right side would pain me and I was so nervous I could not hold a glass of water. Many times I would have to stop my work and sit down or I would fall on the floor in a faint. I consulted several doctors and every one told me the same but I kept fighting to keep from having the operation. I had read so many times of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped my sister so I began taking it. I have never felt better than I have since then and I keep house and am able to do all my work. The Vegetable Compound is certainly one grand medicine."—Mrs. J. R. Matthews, 3311 Sycamore Street, Cairo, Ill.

Chattanooga, Tenn.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my baby came when I could no longer keep up. It strengthened my back and relieved me of the ill effect which so often develops at such times. That was my first experience with the Vegetable Compound. Years afterwards I took it during the Change of Life and got along so well I scarcely ever had to lie down during the day and seldom had dizzy, fainting spells. I am now well and strong, can do all my housework with perfect ease and it is a comfort to me to be able to say to other suffering women 'take Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and be strong.' I will be glad to have you use my name if it will be the means of helping any one."—Mrs. R. A. Farnsworth, 608 Orchard Knob Ave., Chattanooga, Tenn.

I don't think Wilson refused to sign anything that would benefit the soldier.

Miss Dolly Wise—Will you please print the receipt how you put new backing on a looking glass. I clipped one of them out of the paper but have not it.

Select a sheet of tin foil of rough size and pour over it three drams of quicksilver for each square foot of foil. Then rub the foil with foot skin until it becomes brilliant. Lay a sheet of paper over the foil covering it completely and place upon paper a slab of marble or block of wood with a smooth surface. Allow to stand for three or four hours to "set" and then remove the weight. If the work has been carefully done the foil will adhere closely to the glass. Usually however, it is cheaper and more satisfactory to buy a new mirror than to attempt to re-silver an old one.

Two Chums—It's too early to start to print anything about Halloween. I will answer you letter sometime before October 31st.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please have this article printed in tonight's paper. I read the article in last Sunday's paper named "Lonesome Husband." He must be of his first wife, don't you think so, Dolly, because so few of them do. I wanted to say that I am a very lonesome widow and am just as particular as he is about my identity being known. I am 21 years of age and have a little girl 2 1/2 years old. I have always wanted love and romance but have failed so far to get it. I hope to keep house and cook and I dearly love children and I thought when I read his article how much I would like to have a little girl and his little boy would have a mother. I can also play the piano and sing and my one thought was my husband's happiness. I really believe this Lonesome Husband is the type of man I have always looked for. It is the love of a girl in that I want. Yes I am sure that I could make this Lonesome Husband happy and if he would only be communicative with me, you may say I am sure but I do not want to publish it.

Columbus Gets Next System Meeting Of N. & W. Engineers; Meeting Here Is A Splendid Success

Columbus gets the next meeting of the N. & W. system of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers their being decided upon Thursday afternoon at the final business session of the system for 1920. It will be held about the first week in May.

The business session Thursday afternoon was well attended. E. H. Huff, general chairman of the system, presided over the meeting. Besides selecting the next place of meeting several good talks were made on the good of the organization.

Motion pictures were shown to the members and their wives and children. The C. I. A. for the splendid entertainment provided for the two days.

Thursday night, two social sessions were held, one started in Ben Hur hall about eight o'clock and the other began a dance starting in the Elks ball room about nine o'clock. The entertainment in Ben Hur hall was furnished by the members of the Grand International Auxiliary who gave a short playlet entitled "Sewing for the Heavens." The entertainment met with the approval of the large number present, the crowd voting their approval of the play by the rounds of applause which greeted those taking part.

An added feature was the singing and playing of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pyles. Mr. Pyles has a splendid voice and when he sings those songs appropriate to the railroad men the crowd does not want him to quit. They had to respond to several encores.

After the entertainment the crowd adjourned to the Elks hall where a large number of couples crowded the floor. The music was furnished by B. Anderson's orchestra.

This morning a number of the engineers and their wives, especially a number from the eastern part of the N. & W. division, left on a trip to the Cincinnati where they will visit the Zee.

Says It Is Unlawful To Display Mounted Birds

Gus Kehrer, who has the Kenilworth house on Gallia street, was given the surprise of his life several days ago when Deputy Game Protector Frank Voorheis informed him that he was violating the law by having certain mounted birds in his window.

Mr. Kehrer was just getting ready to trim his windows and intended using the mounted birds, but Mr. Voorheis happened along and informed him it was against the law to have such mounted members of the feathered tribe. The mounted birds had been in the family for almost 75 years and it was the first time Mr. Kehrer knew that it was against the law to have them.

Many Soldiers Are Getting Their Handsome Victory Medals

So far this week 132 ex-soldiers of the World War have applied for the Victory Medal to which every ex-World War veteran is entitled whether he served overseas or did not get "over there."

The Medal is on a ribbon, the Medal being authorized and issued by the U. S. Government. The distribution of the Medal here will stop Saturday evening when Lt. Densline will return to Cincinnati. The medals are being distributed from the Red Cross office Seventh floor First National Bank building.

You Can't Brush Or Wash Out Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

WHAT STRAW VOTE SHOWS

Additional returns given out in the straw vote taken by the Columbus Dispatch show that the majority of Senator Harding, the Republican candidate is continuing to pile up.

In a canvass taken at the Gilbert Grocery Company, 23 votes were cast for Harding as against 11 for Cox. The canvass taken at the gravel pit at Wakfield, Pike county shows 31 votes for Harding and 14 for Cox. Returns from the Hanging Rock Furnace company, Lawrence county gives 24 votes for Harding and 13 for Cox while at the Star Furnace company, Jackson county, Harding received 26 votes and Cox 21. The only place that returned a favorable Cox vote was at the Milton Iron Furnace company, Wellston, Jackson county, where the Democratic candidate received 16 votes and six for Harding.

The total of the above places shows 110 votes for Harding and 75 for Cox. The number of persons changing their allegiance from the Democratic to the Republican party totaled 117 while six switched in the other direction.

Five Arrests At New Boston

Five young men who fell off the water wagon last evening were taken to town by Marshal Hall of New Boston as they were trying to meander down Illinois avenue.

They registered at the mayor's office as Jess Barrie, John Famin, Everett Atwood, L. Perry and Alfred Shofar. They are charged with being drunk and disorderly.

To Face Serious Charge

On a warrant sworn out in Squire McManis' court at New Boston by James Hannah, of the Land Office, charging him with driving an automobile without the owner's consent, Frank Bollins, Lakeside man, was taken into custody by an officer

Thursday night and lodged in the county jail pending his hearing which is scheduled to be heard Friday evening.

"The complaint alleges that Bollins broke into a garage and went for riding in the machine entirely without authority."

"He said that the deal to fix players to throw the series to Cincinnati had been engineered by a syndicate of gamblers from Pittsburgh for whom he worked in Cincinnati as betting commissioner.

"He said certain players on the White Sox team had visited Pittsburgh before the series was played and made arrangements to throw the games for a price. He said that the players demanded $100,000 to 'lay down' so that the Sox would lose and this was paid them.

"We discussed various players on the team. Buck Weaver's name was mentioned, but not the names of Jackson, Eddie Collins, John Collins or Ray Schalk. Five players were mentioned by name in the course of the conversation. Four are: Eddie Cicotte, pitcher of the first game of the series; Claude Williams, who pitched the second game; Chick Gandil, first baseman; and Hal Felsch, center fielder. Comiskey held up their checks calling for the players' share of the world's series money for some time. I do not recall the name of the fifth man.

"I do not know the tip was sent out of Cincinnati to let on the Reds. Jean Dubuc, who was a member of the Giants at the time, received a wire instructing him to let his bank roll on the Reds. I was in his room at the Ansania hotel, New York, when he opened the telegram. I was sitting next to him and read the message. I do not remember who signed it.

"They let me around New York that Hal Chase won $100,000 on the series. He must have won a lot, because he had plenty of money after the series ended. I understand his and Dubuc's information came from the man.

"I made one small wager on the series. I bet $20 on the first game and won it. I spent it for drinks in the barroom where I made the wager. I did not even touch the money.

"After the first bet Larry Doyle and I made a poker bet on every game. Doyle liked the White Sox and bet on them. I had had my tip and liked the Reds. But my winnings were very small, only $10 or $20 a day.

"The grand jury today was prepared to investigate a statement printed by several newspapers quoting Ben Johnson, president of the American league, as saying the White Sox would not dare to win this year's pennant from Cleveland, according to reports reaching him, because the gambling syndicate threatened to expose players involved in the baseball scandal.

"Mr. Johnson was out of town today and could not be reached and his secretary said he knew nothing about the statement credited by the news papers to Mr. Johnson.

"Within the last few weeks," the statement says, "it has been hinted more or less openly that the White Sox would not dare win because the gambling syndicate would tell what they know of the conduct of certain players in the Cincinnati-Chicago world's championship games in 1919.

"In the statement, Mr. Johnson is quoted as saying:

"The percentage of dishonest baseball players is very small, but we have some. We have been at fault in the past by placing too much faith in the integrity of all players. I am determined that baseball shall be divorced from gambling and that the black sheep shall be driven from the game.

"Unquestionably there was a lot of money bet on the Cincinnati-Sox games last year. A New York man said he won $170,000 in two bets, taking $100,000 from a stock exchange man and $70,000 from a race horse man."

"Charles 'Buck' Herzog, who was accused yesterday by 'Rube' Benton of offering him money to lose a game, announced today he would appear before the grand jury and demand that he be heard. Herzog has not been subpoenaed.

"The grand jury called Benton," Herzog said, "and thereby grants him immunity from prosecution, notwithstanding the fact that he admitted betting on the world's series, as my witnesses have charged, following a tip from Hal Chase."

Herzog said he would file a waiver of immunity when he demanded to be heard.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—John A. Heydler, president of the National baseball league, who will appear next week before the Chicago grand jury investigating alleged baseball gambling, planned to leave for the west today. Before going to Chicago, however, Mr. Heydler will visit a number of major league cities to investigate several "leads," he has received.

Indecent, much more optimism about Cox's chances in California is to be found in Sacramento where he made a splendid impression when he spoke last week than anywhere else in the state.

Of course, Sacramento has wet inclinations and many of the wets are planning to support Governor Cox.

The League of Nations has been staunchly defended by the Sacramento Union and vigorously opposed by the Sacramento Herald, which may at least be divided on that question. The majority of the San Francisco newspapers, however, cover northern California, but the southern end of the state is this time stronger for the League of Nations than the north. So anything may happen in California in the next few weeks, though if the election were held tomorrow the state would go for Harding.

persons indicted by the recent grand jury before Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Saturday morning, it was announced Friday.

A score of persons indicted are already in custody while a number of others out on bond have been ordered to appear in court to answer to the indictments against them.

Among the prisoners to be arraigned is Edmund Anderson, indicted on a charge of second degree murder for killing his wife with a hatchet at New Boston several months ago. The accused is represented by Attorneys Miller and Mickelthwait.

Stockham Case Given Another Whirl

The divorce and alimony suit of May T. Stockham, 1034 Grant street, against himself Stockham, vice-president of the Stockham company, was given another whirl before Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Friday on a motion to reopen the case.

Following the former hearing of the case last April which resulted in the court denying either party a decree the couple effected a reconciliation and lived together for some time but recently they became involved in an altercation which terminated in a violent struggle at their home and their separation.

During the hearing attorneys for both sides advised the court that it was impossible for the couple to live together happily and in passing the case to give the attorneys an opportunity to adjust the property rights and agree on the custody of the two children, the court indicated that he would grant a decree to one of the parties.

Wife Seeks Divorce and Etc.

A divorce and alimony with custody of their five minor children is sought by Emily Anderson, 224 Sixth street, in an action filed in Common Pleas court Friday against John Anderson.

She says they were married Dec. 21, 1919, and through Attorney Harry Hall she alleges neglect, declaring that Anderson has refused to support his family. She further asserts he is given to intemperance and boozing and claims he is now a fugitive from justice.

Partition of Lease Sought

Partition of a lease on the Halbermain building, 1111a street, is sought by an action instituted in Common Pleas court Friday by C. W. G. Hanahan, suing through Attorneys Miller and Seard against James E. Hanahan, Hotel Hanahan, 1111a street, and The Land Office company.

In his petition the plaintiff says he is a co-tenant with the defendant and is the owner of the undivided one-fifth part of the lease and option to purchase the premises. As such he desires to have the lease divided into five equal parts, one for each of the five co-tenants. Under the terms of the lease which was executed February 11, 1919, and runs for three years, the lessees are given an option to purchase the property on or before March 15, 1922, for the sum of $100,000 or at any time between March 15, 1922 and March 15, 1923, for $100,000 and until March 15, 1924, for $100,000.

At a hearing in the court of the city of Portsmouth, N.H., on Friday, Sept. 24, 1920, the following persons were admitted to citizenship:

Walter E. Smith, 504 Brush St., Toledo, Ohio, recently. But already I have actually gained fifteen pounds in weight.

"I was a constant sufferer from indigestion and at times had severe cramping spells that were just about all I could bear. Whenever one of these attacks came on, the pains nearly drove me frantic and I would get so weak and faint I could hardly stand up. My appetite was extremely poor, and to tell the truth, I was almost afraid to eat. Even toasts and soft-boiled eggs would sour on my stomach and I would 'blow up' so bad with gas that it nearly took my breath away. I felt off a lot in weight and became so weak that my housework was drudgery. I worried and worried over my condition and just felt that there was no relief for me.

"But a good friend of mine had tried 'Lactac' and by her advice I began taking it, too. And I'll declare it just seems wonderful what a difference it has made in me in so short a time. I am just on my third bottle, but already I feel stronger than I have in years and can get through my housework in half the time it used to take me.

"I want to be eating all the time now and what I'm so glad to see is that nothing ever causes me the slightest trouble, for I haven't had a touch of indigestion since I started taking Lactac. I seem to have new strength and energy and don't believe I was ever in better health before."

One of them had this to say recently: "We never thought that poor Ellen would ever recover, she had suffered so long from stomach and liver trouble. She had lost more than 40 pounds in weight. She took a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy upon the advice of a friend and has steadily improved from the first dose. We are all confident of her complete recovery." "Blue Streak McCoy," a splendid production starring the Western favorite Harry Carey will make a distinct hit tonight when it is to be shown for the first time at the Exhibit. Not only is the character which Carey portrays more likeable than many of his former roles but the thrilling story of H. H. Van Loan has an appealing interest that makes "Human Harry" appear at his best.

Carey appears in the role of Fighter Job, a border ranger in a small mining town, liked by all and loathed by one Diana Hughes, niece of Marlowe, prominent mine owner. Through his acquaintance with Diana, Job comes in contact with Marlowe and his wife. The latter, he finds, is carrying on a clandestine love affair with Otis, a mine official, who plans to steal the mine's wife and gold at the same time. His scheme is foiled by Job.

Overworked Men Need More Strength

Here Is A Suggestion That Has Helped Others

Men who are in good physical condition do not feel the strain of daily work. It is those who are under-nourished, and whose blood is not in a thin, dehydrated condition who are always tired and consider themselves overworked. It is not the work, but the condition of body, that makes them feel so.

There are many men here who can prove from personal experience that Vinol is just the remedy such men need. We know of many cases where it has quickly and permanently restored normal health with a quickening of energy, usually because it carries the blood and makes the food they eat nourish and build up body health.

Scioto County Sunday School Convention

The program committee for the Scioto County Sunday School Association has held a very large session and prepared a most excellent program for the coming County Sunday School Convention to be held in the Second Presbyterian church in Portsmouth on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 21 and 22.

The committee first secured the consent of every speaker to be present and take the part assigned to them by placing their name on the program. This promises to be one of the greatest if not the strongest programs the county has ever had. An unusual array of talent has been secured both outside and in the county, because of the many new problems confronting the field of religious education this year.

Some of the speakers from outside the county are as follows: Mr. W. C. Moore of Columbus, O., State Superintendent of the Young People's Division; Mr. Moore was formerly State Secretary for the State of Washington. He is full of enthusiasm.

L. H. Edgar of Columbus, O., the State Superintendent of the Adult Division. Mr. Edgar has been in this county before and so needs no introduction.

T. L. Rydner of Toledo, Ohio, City Superintendent of Religious Education in that city.

J. H. Marcom of Huntington, W. Va., is a very able platform speaker and a specialist with boys.

Some of the speakers from the county are: Prof. Frank Appel, city Superintendent of public schools, Mrs. Dr. William E. Gault, Mrs. Columbia White in charge of the American Red Cross work for Scioto county, Judge A. Z. Blair, Mrs. J. W. Rucker, Mrs.

Albert Heller, Mrs. Fred Arrington, H. W. Buck, Miss Carrie Rowers and a number of others as, Rev. P. C. Wolfe, Rev. D. C. Boyd, Rev. N. E. Butler and Rev. C. M. Howland will have charge of the singing throughout the convention except on Thursday evening when

Mr. S. B. Timmons will put on an illustrated community sing.

Rev. C. E. Chandler will conduct a series of Devotional Talks, using as his general theme, "The Central Power Station."

In the absence of the county president, Mr. W. W. Gates who is attending the World's Sunday School Convention at Tokio, Japan, the first Vice President, Mr. W. H. Dyer of South Webster will have charge of the program.

Every church and Sunday School should plan now to be well represented in this convention.

Dates—Thursday and Friday, October 21, 22.

Place—Second Presbyterian Church, Portsmouth, Ohio.

For Whom?—Every church and Sunday School of any name or denomination.

Friends of Paul A. Wilson and Miss Lydia Long of this city will be surprised to learn that they were married in Cincinnati on August 26 last.

They are a well known and popular couple and are being kept busy receiving the congratulations of their friends.

Old Age Deferred

BY DR. LEE H. SMITH.

Business men who must speed up the works and make business boom during these days—after the war—must recognize the necessity of keeping fit. When mind is befogged, when you have dull headaches or feel lousy, when not "up to snuff" keep the bowels free with a mild laxative. In the morning take a tepid sponge bath (cold water may be used if it does not chill), follow with a brisk rub down; a sufficient "setting up" exercise in good air until you are in a warm glow. Have you tried it lately?

Don't let the poisons accumulate in the intestines either, but try a dose of castor oil the first thing on arising, or a pleasant laxative occasionally, such as one made up of May-apple, aloin and jalap, rolled into a tiny sugar-coated pill, and sold in every drug store as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Then a cup of hot water before breakfast, and you'll feel better than a king! If you continue in life thus, you can pass a Life Insurance examination at sixty.

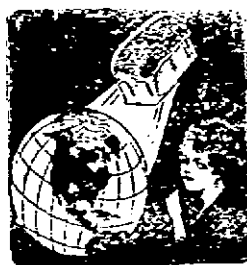

If you wish to prevent old age coming on too soon, or if you want to increase your chances for a long life, you should drink plenty of soft (rain) or distilled water daily between meals. Then procure at the drug store Dr. Pierce's Anuric (anti-uric-acid). This "Anuric" drives the uric acid out and relieves backache and rheumatism, as well as kidney trouble. Anuric dissolves uric acid. Try it now!

HOW MUCH DO YOU USE YOUR EYES?

If almost constantly, you ought to help them with glasses. You may not need glasses for distance at all, but if you are an office worker glasses especially made for you would relieve your eyes of much of the strain, and you might not feel so all in at the end of the day. We make an examination of your eyes and furnish the precise glasses you need for the purpose indicated.

Capt. Williamson Drops Dead

Captain Billy Williamson of the Portsmouth Fire Department answered his last call Friday afternoon. He was on his way to see his physician in the Masonic Temple shortly after 3 o'clock when he suffered an acute attack of heart failure in front of the F. and M. Motor Company on Fifth street just below Chillicothe street. He fell to the side walk and was carried inside by Ode Cloud of the Motor Company and A. J. Miller of the Grubb Tire and Vulcanizing Company which adjoins the Motor Company's place of business. Several physicians were called among them being Dr. William Scherman who found Mr. Williamson beyond human aid. Death came within a few minutes after he was carried inside the building and placed in a chair.

Richardson and Reg's ambulance removed Captain Williamson to his late home, 714 Court street.

Captain Williamson expressed himself as feeling worse than usual this morning. This afternoon just a short time before he died he passed through the Seventh street Engine house and spoke to the firemen and his old friend Captain Lou Ellis. According to Captain Ellis Captain Williamson appeared very bright at this time.

It was a shock and surprise to Captain Ellis when he learned a few minutes later that his life-long friend had died.

The deceased was born in this city. He was over 65 years of age celebrating his 65th birthday just recently. All his life had been spent in this city.

He entered the fire department in August, 1885, and had ever since been connected with the fire fighters with the exception of a couple of years.

He served the fire department as chief from 1894 to 1899 and of late years had been employed as watchman at the engine house. He was recently placed on the firemen's pension list.

His sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Cepus, of McAllister, was at the Williamson home today as a guest and was at the N. & W. depot waiting for her train when friends of the family told her the news of the death.

Captain Williamson is survived by his widow and a nephew, William Williamson.

The deceased was a favorite in the fire department and everyone who knew him liked him. Hardly anyone knew him better than Captain Lou Ellis, who entered the fire department a year before Captain Williamson. Captain Ellis, in speaking of his comrade this afternoon, said that Captain Williamson was one of the greatest men ever in the local fire department. He loved that old steam engine and took care of it and watched over it like it was a child of his own. Every time anyone went near the engine he had his eyes on them to see that no harm came to his "pet." The old steam engine referred to is one of the old pumps that was in use before the fire trucks were purchased, which is kept for emergency.

Captain Williamson was a member of the local Masonic lodge and was a Knight Templar.

He had a wide circle of friends who will learn of his death with genuine sorrow. He was an honored citizen and his death is a loss to the city.

MOVIE MEN FINED; JUDGE URGES THAT ALL SUNDAY VIOLATORS BE PROSECUTED OR NONE

When the case of six motion picture theatre owners, George Law, J. F. Fotta, William Spitzer, Dallas Howland, Francis Mack and William McConnell, charged with unlawfully operating their theatres last Sunday, came up for trial in Municipal court Friday afternoon, Attorney Theo. K. Funk, representing the defendants, changed their former pleas of not guilty to guilty.

Judge Blair fined the defendants $10 and costs, each, and in passing sentence the court commented at some length on the cases. In this connection the court said in part: "This court has one motive and that is to deal fairly, but it does not seem fair to this court or any other court for the persons behind these prosecutions to invoke the Sabbath statutes against these six men as the court will take notice that scores of other violations take place every Sunday in this city, however, if these complaints are sincere and in good faith and will come into this court and prosecute all violators of the Sunday statutes with equal vigor the law will be enforced to all alike."

The court dwelt particularly on the point that it is unfair to pick out any certain class and start prosecutions and let others in another class go unpunished.

Attorney Theo. K. Funk in defense of the owners declared that the shows were opened last Sunday, not with a desire to defy the law, but to meet a popular demand. He said it was a popular demand of the law and pointed out that not a city in Ohio the size of Portsmouth but what has open places of amusement on the Sabbath. Continuing he asserted that the picture theatres were places of instruction and education and that there was nothing immoral about them.

He called attention to the scores of other violations of the same law every Sunday and declared that the closing of the shows was not a matter between the church and movie owners as it had nothing to do with religion. Mr. Funk said that the law of custom in most cities had given the movies a right to run on Sundays.

The attorney in closing declared that the complainants ought to be equally anxious to suppress the opening of soft drink parlors, ice cream shops, gasoline stations and other places as they seem to be in suppressing the picture shows.

Judge Blair in answer said there was no disposition on the part of his clients to be harsh or unjust but that they were insisting on the defendants obeying the law and that they had given no intimation that they expect to cease violating the Sunday law by defying the law. Judge Blair said, "and they are here now seeking to make a force of the statutes with impunity." He declared his clients were not seeking to pick out a certain class of offenders and insisted that if his clients are furnished with the names of any violators of the Sunday laws, together with the names of witnesses, prosecutions will follow.

Judge Blair asserted that his clients expect to keep after all Sunday violators and served notice that prosecutions will result.

The court room was again packed with a crowd of spectators that looked on the proceedings with much interest.

Harding Promises To Unfurl The U. S. Flag On All Seas

MARION, O., Sept. 24.—Again at the record of the Democratic administration and "one man government," Senator Harding told a delegation of West Virginians today that in his opinion the most conspicuous failure of Democratic rule had been the "continual flaccid of the shipping board."

"One of the great problems of the incoming administration," he said, "will be to appoint to practical use for America the great merchant marine built since the war. The record of the shipping board was one continual flaccid from beginning to end. When the war ended, we should have been in position to establish shipping lines to every part of the world."

"I promise you that one of the first acts of the incoming administration will be to unfurl the flag again on all the seas of the world."

Tomorrow, Saturday -
The Last Day Of Our
Sensational Seventh
Anniversary Management Sale

Will be the greatest day for value giving ever known in our business career!

A sale no miss or matron should overlook. Coming as it does at the beginning of the season, when garments in the newest Autumn styles, such as suits, dresses, coats, furs, skirts, blouses, sweaters and millinery exceedingly in demand are offered at such reductions, that no store at this season of the year could, nor would attempt to do, and the management is therefore more than pleased to present such unusual opportunities to its patrons and takes particular pride in its value offerings, knowing that hundreds of smiling faces with an expression of gratitude leaves this popular establishment, rejoicing over such savings, thus doing the management more good than the mighty few dollars it could derive of its ordinary selling.

Why We Were Just Swelled With Pride To See You All Come And Respond So Generously During This Sale

Thus showing your readiness always to co-operate with us in anything that spells "success" to this store and always encourages us in any enterprise we make undertake. WHAT A GREAT ASSET FOR THIS STORE to have such a strong army of patrons! and could we help ourselves!—but to celebrate this great achievement which means every thing in our business life. Would not our new store of "Klines" (under construction now) set an example to this community that we have great faith in their support. Who would undertake such big proposition without such encouragement?

This Is Just What We Are Rejoicing Over! And Are Anxious To Repay You.

Not only by expressing our gratitude with more words and cold print, but to give you such splendid values that will make you realize that we have not forgotten our solemn promise — to render only a store service which has the community at heart and not only the selfish part of making money.

SO COME TOMORROW. The savings throughout the establishment will make your visit worth while.

BODY IS FOUND

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 24.—A preliminary post mortem examination of the body of Jacob Charles Denton, found buried in a sealed room in the cellar of his home, having disclosed no marks of violence, detectives searched today for evidence as to how the wealthy mining promoter came to his death.

Officers previously had expressed the theory that Denton had been shot or strangled. The shooting theory was favored because a revolver, fully loaded, but with one cartridge of a room which Denton had reserved for his own use.

Stories by Los Angeles friends as to when Denton was last seen differed as to date. Some placed it at June 2, while others named August 19 as the time he dropped from sight.

Judge Russ Avery of the Los Angeles superior court, friend and attorney of the dead man, made public portions of a recent will drawn by Denton. This document disposed of the bulk of his property to Frances Denton, daughter of his first and divorced wife, now going to school in Phoenix, Arizona.

He also wrote Judge Avery: "If anything should happen to me, or in case of death which must sometime happen to all of us, I hereby appoint you my attorney in fact, and, together with Fred Denton, Lawson, Mo., the administrator of my estate."

Joe Denton is a brother of the dead man, the police said.

Donahey Challenges Voters To Compare His Record With Davis'

CLEVELAND, Sept. 24.—Vic Donahey, in two-fisted fashion tore off the lid of his campaign chest, in an address to Cleveland Democrats Thursday night, and in the home city of his opponent called upon the friends of good government in Ohio to compare his record with that of his opponent, Harry J. Davis.

Donahey's forceful utterance made it plain that as far as he is concerned that is the big issue in this campaign.

He cited the property possessions of the State valued at $71,074,772 with income from all sources of $25,000,000 and expenditures of over $25,000,000 and asked his auditors if they were looking for a general manager to take care of this property and manage it successfully whom they would select.

"Would you examine him as to his honesty and ability? Would you not in fact search his past record and submit it to the arid test?" asked the auditor in vigorous style.

"Let the people of Ohio investigate my past record, public and private and vote according to the dictates of their conscience.

"The people of Ohio hear the Republican nominee for governor loudly proclaiming that if elected Governor he will enforce the laws of the State. If he failed to enforce the laws of the City of Cleveland for four years can he be trusted to enforce the laws of the great state of Ohio.

"He proclaimed economy in a loud voice. Let the good people of Cleveland bear witness as to whether he was economical in the affairs of Ohio's first city. The record of Cleveland will show it.

"Davis having put Cleveland on the financial rocks now yearns to get into the treasury of Ohio for the greatest era of spending that the state has ever witnessed. My friends I want you to take this warning to heart. Investigate the truth and you will never vote to place my opponent in charge of the affairs of Ohio.

Fear The G. A. R. Might Lose Its Individuality

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 24.—Facing the possibility of a fight on the proposed federation of veterans organizations for the promotion of patriotism, the Grand Army of the Republic opened the final session of its 1920 encampment here today. Election of officers and selection of the 1921 meeting place, were the other important matters left for decision.

The federation with the American Legion and the Spanish-American Veterans was recommended at Thursday's session by the committee. Which with similar committees from the other organizations, drew up the plan. Some delegates, however, objected to the plan as outlined in the resolution, fearing, it was stated, that the Grand Army of the Republic would lose its individuality.

Accordingly an amendment was prepared for action today setting forth plainly that the federation shall in no way be construed to conflict with the constitution of the organization.

The veterans yesterday voted to increase the per capita tax to ten cents per year and to change the ritual to read "one country, one language and one flag." Instead of "one country and one flag."

The Sons of Veterans, one of the auxiliary organizations meeting here, will elect officers and bring its business sessions to an end today.

Many Want To Come To America

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 24.—For the first time since the beginning of last year's steel strike, when an exodus of aliens began here, arrivals of immigrants are outnumbering departures, a survey of railroad and steamship offices show.

Every incoming train brings from 10 to 50 immigrants, railroad officials say. Most of the men who arrive among the groups wearing tickets showing their destination are Italians, while those from the regions formerly in the Austro-Hungarian empire are mostly women and children, families who are rejoining the husbands and fathers here.

Persons of foreign birth here are receiving many begging letters from friends and even strangers abroad, asking that steamship tickets be bought here and sent to them.

Disorders At Turin, Italy

ROME, Sept. 24.—Disorders continue at Turin and rifle firing is sometimes assuming the character of a battle in the outskirts of the city, according to dispatches reaching Rome. More persons have been killed.

A bomb was thrown in San Carlos square near the central police station, but no one was killed or injured, only the nearby buildings being struck by fragments.

Police and military authorities are showing extraordinary activity and have made 200 arrests.

A resolution adopted by the council of the workmen's league inviting the people to remain calm and not to jeopardize negotiations in the metal workers' dispute by any acts of violence, is published by the newspaper AVANTI.

British Coal Miners Will Not Strike

LONDON, Sept. 24.—The coal miners of Great Britain will not go on strike next Monday, as threatened, it developed today. As a result of a meeting between Premier Lloyd George and representatives of the trade alliance of unions, the coal strike notices previously handed in have been suspended for one week.

All Stars Beat Waverly's Made-To-Order Team, 10 To 8

PENNY ANTE

The Staller At Work

Before practically every man, woman and child in Waverly, the All Stars of Portsmouth handed the "made-to-order" Pickettians by the score of 10 to 8, in what was one of the most exciting struggles ever. The willingness of Oscar DeLoelle allowed the Waverly lads to make a respectable showing so far as offensive matters are concerned—otherwise the team would have done well to make an impression that would attract any particular attention.

A great crowd was out to see the struggle and every fan in Waverly was sure to have seen the team that had been revamped for the occasion. They had George McQuillan, former Cincinnati, on the mound, and they thought the big fellow would make the All Stars use their bats for nothing more effective than snatching strikes. But Mr. McQuillan, seated after the game that he has been hammered since in his time, but that he never got a greater drubbing than on Thursday afternoon, September 23. The All Stars piled up fifteen solid drives, Benton leading with four, two of which were doubles. Floyd Smith had a field day with the willow, getting two triples and a single. Hock and DeLoelle cut in with triple plated blows, all of which shows Mr. McQuillan was no puzzle. Benton's all around playing featured the contest. He roamed all over the middle pastures and caught no less than five drives, all of which would have been good for extra bases swats had he not been so nimble of foot and clear of eye. His playing was a revelation to the staid people of Waverly, who wondered why on earth he was not with some of the big boys.

Waverly "loaded up" for fair for the game, expecting, of course, to trounce Portsmouth's best team. There was Frank Nesser on first, Rapp, of Columbus behind the bat, Luskie at third—and all fans know who he is—Booth, of Columbus, at short, and our old friend, Waverly Hickey, at second. But this combination hadn't a chance and the Waverly manager is now wishing he had played his own boys against Gabe's team.

While Portsmouth won, the boys were given a great reception and Manager Hickeyman treated them to a fine chicken dinner at the Emmett house. All in all, the trip was hugely enjoyed and any time Waverly wants the boys to come back and put on an exhibition of skill, they'll all answer "aye." The score:

Masonic Bowling League Will Open On Monday

Next Week's Schedule
 Monday, Sept. 27—Royals vs. Mutuals, Play House Alleys.
 Tuesday, Sept. 28—Drummers vs. Beavers, Play House Alleys.
 Wednesday, Sept. 29—Movies vs. Saratogs, Play House Alleys.
 Thursday, Sept. 30—Players vs. Waiters, Play House Alleys.
 Friday, Oct. 1—Amorians vs. Horrobes, Play House Alleys.
 Friday, Oct. 1—Wholesalers vs. Tramps, Pennant Alleys.

The Masonic Bowling League will open the season of 1920-21 on Monday night of next week, when the Royals will meet the Mutuals at the Play House alleys, beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock. It is imperative that every player pay in his dues of $3.00 before a ball is thrown down the alley, otherwise the games will be forfeited to the team playing in full.

It is the desire of President W. A. Peyer that the teams select their captains before the games begin. All in all, the outlook for a successful season is very promising. The teams seem to be evenly matched and no one can foresee the outcome. The complete schedule will probably appear in Sunday's Times. It will be the most complete schedule ever framed, and the players are asked to be on the look out for it, so they can clip it. The schedule for both seasons will appear.

Fans Devouring Hot Sport

Interest in the baseball situation in the big leagues is running high in Portsmouth, discussions being heard daily all over the downtown district as to the respective chances of the various teams. The noon extras are being fairly gobbled up for the latest sport dope. The sport pot is sizzling these days.

JUST DOPE

Kid Gleason's Chicago White Sox pounded out a 10-3 victory over Tris Speaker's tribe of fighting Indians Thursday in the first game of a three game series that will have a strong bearing on the pennant standing, and climbed to within one-half game of first place.

Dicky Kerr, the diminutive left-hander of the Sox team, let the Indians down with eight scattered hits, while his teammates were nipping three Cleveland trippers, Bagby, Caldwell and Uhl, for fifteen safe swats. Bagby, who is leading the American League pitchers, had no mystifying power over the fast-traveling Sox team and was driven out of the box to be replaced by Caldwell, who later gave way to Uhl.

The Indians were the first to score, crossing the plate once in the first inning.

The left handed twister recently purchased from the Sacramento club of the Pacific Coast League and Joe Sewell, the clever young shortstop.

Mails has won six straight games for the Indians and it would not be surprising if this pitcher gave the youngsters a chance to show his wares in the present crucial series with the Chicago White Sox. Mills stepped into the breach just at the time when the Indians needed him most and has won a place in the hearts of the Cleveland fans for himself by his sterling work.

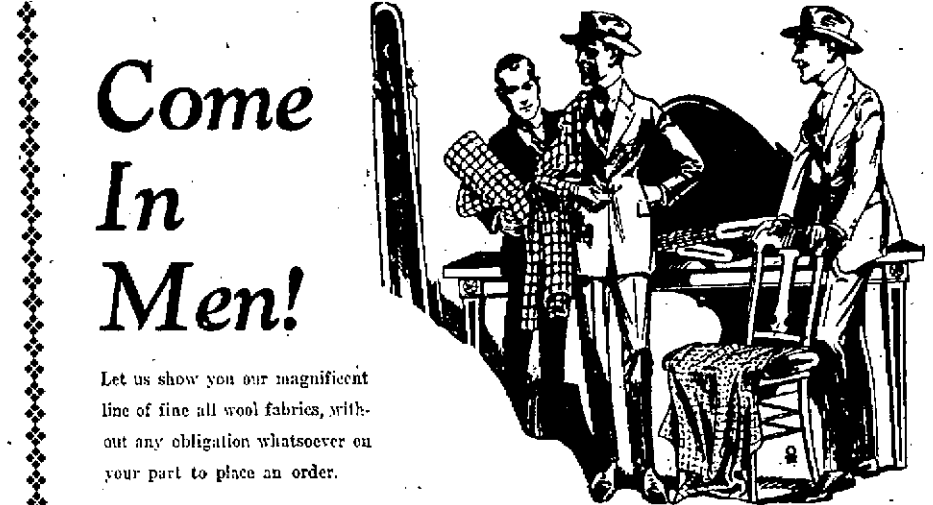

At the time when Cleveland got him, they did not possess a single dependable left-hander, in fact they haven't had one for years, and Mills took advantage of the chance offered to make good.

Harry Lunte, who stepped into the breach when Ray Chapman was killed, suddenly sprang a chorley horse recently, and Speaker was forced to play the two games in which things looked the darkest in blue.

The New York Giants will open a two-game series with Brooklyn at the Polo Grounds Saturday. The two teams will dash again at Brooklyn on September 30, October 1 and 2. The Giants are in fighting trim and are out for the series. If the Giants should take five straight games, or four out of five from Brooklyn, the two teams would be running neck and neck for the National League pennant.

Two reports, without previous basis, have been received from the Cleveland Indians in the struggle for the American League baseball championship.

The first report is that the Indians have won the championship.

The Bollweavers, for whom Dr. Wiley, the Ohio mentor, is already preparing, furnish the opposition on the occasion of the week of Ohio State's Semi-Centennial celebration when thousands of alumni and former students are expected to throng to the campus.

Early season reports have boosted Purdue stock considerably here and the Indians are looking to give the Bollweavers the acid test in their first Big Ten engagement of the Fall.

Eight fans in America will get their first chance to see Georges Carpentier, French war hero and heavyweight champion of Europe, in a big bout with Battling Lerinsky at Jersey City, October 12. Carpentier has expressed a strong desire to meet Dempsey in the near future.

Minneapolis 2; Indianapolis 10.

The stage is set for a hotly contested battle when Portsmouth and Jackson High School eleven try the 14 off the local football season in the initial fracas in Millbrook Park Saturday afternoon. The game is scheduled to start at 2:00 o'clock.

Jackson's eligibility list has been received at the local High School, and the indications are that the Jacksonians will bring a strong aggregation here to combat the red and blue.

Coach McComb's local gridgers went through a good scrimmage Thursday and if they perform true to color in the initial struggle Saturday there is no doubt but they will open the local season with a clean victory.

Millbrook field will be lined off Saturday by the squad of assistant managers, and it was announced at the High School that all spectators would be kept off the field and behind the side lines.

Down Go The Redlegs

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23.—Pittsburgh made it three straight from Cincinnati Thursday with a victory of 4 to 0, due to the excellent pitching of Cooper and timely hitting by Grimm, Burnham and Tierney. The locals bunched three hits in the fourth and three in the sixth which produced all their runs. Score:

DESCHANEL'S RESIGNATION

THERE is an element of tragedy in the misfortune of ex-president Deschanel of France. Public opinion set against him; and the one-time popular, immaculate man-of-the-world found himself a by-word throughout his country.

His post was not an exacting one; its chief requisites are suavity and a sense of personal dignity. These attributes Deschanel possessed in a marked degree. Unlike the president of the United States, the French president is not an executive, but a symbol, with much the same limitations as the British king. The French presidency is an honor, and has come to be bestowed on men not too ardently identified with the heat of political warfare.

Deschanel was, in his person, all that could be asked in the qualities of a president. A literary dilettante with a distinct social genius, he was not styled without reason the prince of boulevardiers. Moreover, he had his ambitions, shared by his wife. He regarded the presidency, probably, as the culmination of a dignified career; she, scarcely more of a society leader than her distinguished husband, grasped it as placing the couple, at the head of their world.

The cause and circumstances of Deschanel's unhappy accident need not be discussed. It is the effect that matters. The truth is that although the president made pitiful overtures to be restored to normal opinion, France persisted in looking at him sideways. Affection didn't enter and critical curiosity did. Deschanel had just held his first reception as a third proof of his recovery; and France whispered about it. Unkind rumors were to be found in every French organ, couched in the varying language of affected sympathy, public duty and veiled hostility, but all harping on the supposedly imminent resignation of the president, which they insistently assumed was certain.

And Deschanel didn't want to resign. His illness was not so lengthy nor so serious as that of President Wilson; and the French president's responsibilities do not begin to compare with those of America's executive.

Yet France has been painted as the home of gallantry, and the United States as a land where political conduct is particularly ruthless. Europe may have its own definitions of gallantry. But in a case such as this loyalty seems to be an American ingredient.

PUNISHING PROFITEERS

FOR a long time now there has been much talk about profiteering in the necessities of life, and there have been demands that the profiteers be severely punished. When officials try to meet these demands they find themselves seriously handicapped. Many persons are quick to make charges of profiteering but they are not willing to back up their charges by becoming witnesses for the government.

The Lever law, under which prosecutions against profiteers are brought, is in itself a somewhat indifferent statement of the powers given to officials to regulate prices or to take action to compel the taking only of reasonable profits. Some federal judges dismiss cases that appear to the public to be plain instances of profiteering.

The public refused to buy sugar at the maximum price fixed by the holders of sugar and the price fell to a much lower level. Only the demands of the canning season sustained the market at present prices. The same treatment in other cases of exorbitant prices might have a similar effect.

Hunger strikes may gain universal popularity if restaurant prices go much higher.

Only the person who carries it seems to pay much attention to the wrist watch any more.

A man may imagine he has a lot of troubles in life, but there is only one Lloyd George.

Sometimes the only thing that will arouse a man is to pass him a brick instead of a bouquet.

An optimist is a person who fools himself into believing that his troubles are mostly bubbles.

Woman is the most sought creation except money, but will the office now seek the woman?

The man who goes around paying one hundred per cent on the dollar is playing a reasonably safe game.

There was a time when money could do a lot of bluffing, but its efforts are rather weak these days.

To The Readers Of "The Diary Of An Engaged Girl"

For the past few weeks the author of "The Diary of an Engaged Girl" has been traveling in Europe and has been sending the various installments across the ocean. Due to the fact that some of the installments were lost in transit the readers of this interesting serial will be compelled to forego the pleasure of their daily reading of this series until the lost copy can be traced or replaced. The Central Press Association which furnishes The Times the copy for the story is doing all in its power to recover the lost installments and promises to resume the story within a few days.

Small shops are taking the place of department stores. By actual count there

Fussy dames in high powered cars.

Shamelessly applying the rouge and great pile of foreign labeled trunks at the Plaza. I once bought a pack of labels to paste on my grip when I went back home. And they're still laughing about it. It didn't get over at all. Still you can't blame a guy for trying.

To those who are superstitious about breaking looking glasses the following authentic story comes from

Wall Street. It concerns a financier whose name is known on every league. He slipped in his bathroom and in falling pushed a chair against a great mirror in the door, breaking it to pieces.

He was superstitious and told the family about it at breakfast. When he reached the office he found a check for a half million that he had never expected to materialize. At lunch the board of directors notified him that he had earned a vacation and they presented him with a yacht—completely built and luxuriously furnished. And in the afternoon a daughter of whom he was unusually proud, announced that she was not going to marry a young man her father opposed.

One of those loosely conducted hotels in the Forties was visited by the police raiders about 3 o'clock the other morning. All the guests were aroused and told to report at the office down stairs. While the register showed patrons registered from as far away as Pekin, China, there were only four pieces of baggage in the house. And one of these was an elephantine vanity case. There was not a single trunk in the hotel.

Great fortunes might be gained in Manhattan shopping districts in a day if one found the things that were lost by shoppers. Here is a record of an average day's loss in the Lost and Found columns of the Times: "Purse containing $16,000; 1 diamond necklace; 1 long diamond and platinum chain; 1 gold bracelet with sapphires; 1 platinum bar pin with 25 diamonds; 1 diamond brooch circle with 62 diamonds; 14 platinum diamond rings; 1 diamond coat; five wrist watches, one set with diamonds; 1 $5000 Liberty Bond and a coin purse containing $150."

Had Enough.
"Muh wife mar'd up to reform m. s.," stated Brother Hloodinger, and in so plum bodaciously re-famed dat I wouldn't marry ag'in if I do lived to be as old as Methoo-rom!—Judge.

All Speech Consisted Of.

Compelling Curiosity.
"What did you think of that movie star's act?" "I didn't go to see the acting. I went to see what a person who can draw such an enormous salary looks like."

WHO'S WHO In The Days News

MABEL BOARDMAN

Great satisfaction has been expressed by prominent residents of the District of Columbia over the appointment of Miss Mabel Thorp Boardman, the noted Red Cross leader, to be a commissioner of the District of Columbia. Many point out that Miss Boardman's long residence at the national capital and her thorough knowledge of the problems of the District of Columbia obviate the friction and bitterness which frequently accompany political appointments to local posts. Miss Boardman is a Republican.

This is the first time a woman has ever been appointed to this office, which is similar in many respects to the office of mayor of the large cities.

Miss Boardman was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and she is a college graduate and an author. Her Red Cross work has received recognition from the kings of Sweden and Italy, and the emperor of Japan.

The newly appointed commissioner also becomes a member of the public utilities commission and the zoning commission, two important branches of the local government.

She went undraped without a single fear or thought that she had need to be assumed.

'Twas only when she'd eaten of the apple

That she became inclined to be a prude,

And found that evermore she'd have to grapple

With the much debated problem of the nude.

Thereafter she devoted her attention

Her time and all her money to her clothes;

And that was the beginning of con-vention,

And modesty as well, I do suppose.

Reaction's come about in fashions recent:

Now, girls conceal so little from the men

That it would seem in name of all

That's decent, Someone should pass the apples 'round again.

"Oh, you'll find out," said Dandy. "I can do a few of them myself. I can wait on my hind legs, and stand on my head, and roll a barrel, and now I'm learning to stand on a globe and roll it backwards and forwards."

"My, but you are smart!" said Billy. "And does he ever flip you? If you don't get them right?"

Dandy laughed and tossed his head. "No, indeed!" said he. "Bobby never had a whip in his hand. We're all of us glad to do anything he tells us."

"If you know how, stupid," croaked a new voice, and Billy looked up to see a tame black crow sitting in the window.

"Stupid yourself, Tarwings," said the pony, but it was in a friendly tone. "You must have good times here," said Billy, sighing as he thought of all the places of troubles he had seen in his travels.

"We do," replied Dandy. "Of course it isn't all play. Now I just came in from hoeing corn."

"You mean that Bobby hoed the corn while you pulled the hoe," croaked the crow. "Don't mind what he says. Mr. Goat. He'll make you think that he does it all around here," and then, laughing hoarsely, the crow clapped his wings and flew away.

Dandy laughed heartily. "He thinks he's a great mischief maker, but nobody gets angry at what he says. He doesn't mean a bit of harm by it."

Just then Bobby came in with a post of warm mash for Billy. The goat hardly knew whether he liked it at the first taste, but as he ate more of it and felt it warming him up inside, he began to realize how good it was, and after he had eaten all that Bobby

The Shifting Statue.

The destroyer Sharky, which arrived in New York harbor some days ago, dropped anchor near the Statue of Liberty on the starboard side, but during the night the tide shifted it about to the port side.

This transformation was most perplexing to a rookie gob, who finally confided his problem to a C. P. O.

"Well, you see, it's like this," the old timer informed him. "New York and Brooklyn both claim the statue, so to stop the argument the government lets New York have it one day and then moves it over to the Brooklyn side the next."

Dead to the World.

The total lack of comprehension between the American negro and his Algerian brother will go down in history as one of the outstanding features of the war.

There was, for instance, the case of the dusky stevedore at Brest, and one of the colored French troops on duty there. Long and laboriously the Yank tried to establish some means of linguistic communication, but there was no response.

Then a brilliant thought struck the boy from Georgia. He produced a pair of ivory cubes and rolled them excitedly under the Algerian's nose. Intelligence still registered zero.

"Mon," said Sam, in disgust. "You ain't no cultural pussen. You ain't even human. You is just a corpse."

Still Following.

"Could you do something for a poor old sailor?" asked the seedy-looking wanderer at the gate.

"Poor old sailor?" echoed the lady at work at the tub.

"Yes'm, I followed the wotter for sixteen years."

"Well," said the woman, after a critical look, "you certainly don't look as if you ever caught up with it."

Then she resumed her labor—The New Majority.

The two village troublemakers had gotten into a row and the matter was up in court. Uncle Wash, an old gen-

"I kaint jes' remember it all," replied the candid Wash, "except dat each one was callin' de other wite dey is."

BENTON CHARGES 5 WHITE SOX GOT $100,000 FOR THROWING SERIES

CICOTTE, WILLIAMS, FELSCH AND GANDIL NAMED IN CHARGE

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Investigation of a report that George M. Cohen, actor, and Monte Tennes, of Chicago, had lost large sums bet on last year's world series was understood today to be under consideration by the Cook county grand jury, which next Tuesday will resume gathering testimony of charges that the series was "fixed" so that the Cincinnati Reds would win. Published reports place Cohen's losses at $30,000 and Tennes' at $80,000.

In the inquiry into "fixing" charges, it is to be pushed to the limit, according to a statement made by Henry H. Brigham, foreman of the grand jury, who declared that he was "shocked at the rottenness so far revealed."

He added that "Chicago, New York, Cincinnati and St. Louis gamblers are bleeding baseball and corrupting players."

State's Attorney Heyne, according to a statement received from him in New York, declared he "had no doubt that the 1919 series was crooked and at least one Chicago player was crooked."

He added that a report that Cohen and Tennes had information regarding alleged baseball crookedness would be thoroughly investigated by his office.

Jacob C. (Rube) Benton, New York Giants pitcher, who told the grand jury yesterday of being offered a bribe to lose a game, naming "Eddie" Herzog, Hal Chase and "Heinie" Zimmerman in connection with the alleged offer, in a statement published today, named four White Sox players as having been named to him by an alleged member of a baseball gambling ring in a discussion of alleged "fixing" of the 1919 series.

These players, Benton declared were Eddie Cicotte, pitcher of the first game, Claude Williams, pitcher in the second, Chick Gandil, first baseman and Hal Fesch, center fielder. According to Benton's statement, the players were mentioned by a Cincinnati "betting commissioner" named Hahn.

Benton said that Hahn told him five White Sox players demanded $100,000 for "throwing" the series and that this was paid to them by a group of Pittsburgh gamblers.

Benton said he was sure Cicotte could name the Pittsburgh gamblers would be glad to give the information to the grand jury.

Benton in his story of the alleged "fixing" of the world series last fall, said:

"Last fall, after the series, a man named Hahn, who hailed from Cincinnati and is known as a betting commissioner, visited me at my home in New York, N. Y."

"One morning while we were out driving, I asked him about the world series. He said the series was not to be started."

"He said that the deal to fix players to throw the series to Cincinnati had been consummated by a syndicate of gamblers from Pittsburgh for whom he worked in Cincinnati as betting commissioner.

"He said certain players on the White Sox team had visited Pittsburgh before the series was played and made arrangements to throw the games for a price. He said that the players demanded $100,000 to 'lay down' so that the Sox would lose and this was paid them."

"We discussed various players on the team. Buck Weaver's name was not mentioned, nor were the names of Jackson, Eddie Collins, John Collins or Ray Schalk. Five players were mentioned by Hahn in the course of the conversation: Your first, Eddie Cicotte, pitcher of the first game of the series; Claude Williams, who pitched the second game; Chick Gandil, first baseman; and Hal Fesch, center fielder. Considered held up their checks calling for the players' share of the world series money for some time. I do not recall the name of the fifth man."

"I do not know the tip was sent out of Cincinnati to bet on the Reds. Jean Dulone, who was a member of the Giants at the time, received a wire instructing him to bet his bank roll on the Reds. I was in his room at the Ansonia hotel, New York, when he opened the telegram. I was stilling next to him and read the message. I do not remember who signed it."

"They tell me around New York that Hal Chase won $40,000 on the series. He must have won a lot, because he had plenty of money after the series ended. I understood his and Dulone's information came from the man."

"I made one small wager on the series. I bet $20 on the first game and won it. I spent it for drinks in the barroom where I made the wager. I did not even touch the money."

"After the first bet Larry Doyle and I made a poker bet on every game. Doyle liked the White Sox and bet on them. I had had my 'tip' and liked the Reds. But my winnings were very small, only $10 or $20 a day."

"The grand jury today was prepared to investigate a statement printed by several newspapers quoting Ben Johnson, president of the American League, as saying the White Sox would not dare to win this year's pennant from Cleveland, according to reports reaching him, because the gambling syndicate threatened to expose players involved in the baseball scandal."

Mr. Johnson was out of town today and could not be reached and his secretary said he knew nothing about the statement credited by the news papers to Mr. Johnson.

"Within the last few weeks," the statement says, "it has been hinted more or less openly that the White Sox would not dare win because the gambling syndicate would tell what they knew of the conduct of certain players in the Cincinnati-Chicago world's championship games in 1919."

In the statement, Mr. Johnson is quoted as saying:

"The percentage of dishonest baseball players is very small, but we have some. We have been at fault in the past by placing too much faith in the integrity of all players. I am determined that baseball shall be divorced from gambling and that the black sheep shall be driven from the game."

"Unquestionably there was a lot of money bet on the Cincinnati-Sox games last year. A New York man said he won $170,000 in two bets, taking $100,000 from a stock exchange man and $70,000 from a race horse man."

Charles "Buck" Herzog, who was accused yesterday by "Rube" Benton of offering him money to lose a game, announced today he would appear before the grand jury and demand that he be heard. Herzog has not been subpoenaed.

"The grand jury called Benton," Herzog said, "and thereby grants him immunity from prosecution, notwithstanding the fact that he admitted betting on the world's series, as my witnesses have charged, following a tip from 'Hal Chase'."

Herzog said he would file a waiver of immunity when he demanded to be heard.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—John A. Heydler, president of the National baseball league, who will appear next week before the Chicago grand jury investigating alleged baseball gambling, planned to leave for the west today. Before going to Chicago, however, Mr. Heydler will visit a number of major league cities to investigate several "tricks," he has received.

CALIFORNIAN'S BODY IS FOUND IN SEALED ROOM

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 24.—A preliminary post mortem examination of the body of Jacob Charles Denton, 39, found buried in a sealed room in the cellar of his home, having disclosed no signs of violence, detectives searched today for evidence as to how the wealthy mining promoter came to his death.

Officers previously had expressed the theory that Denton had been shot or stabbed. The shooting theory was favored because a revolver, fully loaded, but with one cartridge of a wrong caliber, had been found in a room which Denton had reserved for his own use.

Stories by Los Angeles friends as to when Denton was last seen differed as to date. Some placed it at June 2, while others named August 19 as the time he dropped from sight.

Judge Russ Avery of the Los Angeles superior court, friend and attorney of the dead man, made public portions of a recent will drawn by Denton. This document disposed of the bulk of his property to Frances Denton, daughter of his first and divorced wife, now going to school in Phoenix, Arizona.

He also wrote Judge Avery: "If anything should happen to me, or if my death should be caused by any means, I hereby appoint the newspaper AVANTI."

What Plattsburg was to the gray in the way of intensive training, the Pan-American College of Commerce will be to the forces of foreign trade, according to the ideals and plans outlined by officials of the Southern Commercial Congress, from which the college springs. It will open in Panama early in January. The new college has for president of its advisory council John Barrett, retiring director general of the Pan-American Union, and for its executive director Dr. Clarence J. Owens, director general of the Southern Commercial Congress.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Charges that Governor Cox urged draft exemption for one of the two sons of E. C. Scripps, head of a chain of newspapers and that government employees went to San Francisco at public expense at the time of the Democratic national convention there, were inquired into late yesterday by the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures.

Robert L. Scripps, one of the two brothers mentioned in the draft exemption charges, told the committee that beyond recently published reports, he knew nothing of any interest shown by Governor Cox in behalf of himself or his brother during the operation of the draft. He acknowledged that The Newspaper Enterprise Association, which he said was an "allied organization" of the United Press News service, in which he asserted his father owned the majority of stock, had sent out Cox propaganda sheet along with its news matter to seventy newspapers. The interest shown by himself in twenty-one Scripps newspapers by his family in bringing about Governor Cox's election, he said was purely public interest.

The inquiry into alleged travel at Government expense of federal employees to San Francisco, will be pursued by the committee on the basis of information received today, the committee calling for a record from the Department of Justice and Agriculture to show what employees had gone to the Pacific coast city about the time of the Democratic convention, and had their expenses paid by the government. Several vouchers showing such trips were examined in detail at today's session, and Chairman Keaton indicated that all departments of government might be called upon for information of this character.

"Do you know of any tricks by officials of other departments, the navy, for instance?" the chairman asked John Sees, an employee of the department of justice who had presented vouchers of Frank K. Stetson and R. F. Stewart, assistant attorney general, to the attorney general and George Montrose, an examiner of titles, whose expense account showed he had traveled "with the attorney general."

Were there any official meetings held on battleships, Senator Keaton continued, and the witness answered that he did not know.

Sees was directed to supply by September morning a list of all employees of the department of justice who had turned in vouchers covering trips to San Francisco during the convention period, and also any voucher submitted by Attorney General Palmer himself.

Additional light on the methods used by the Republican and Democratic parties in the financing of campaigns this year was sought today by the senate investigating committee whose members planned to question witnesses chiefly to obtain further details of information already offered during the committee's inquiry or to corroborate previous testimony.

Among the witnesses subpoenaed with the expectation that they would be heard yesterday, who were still to testify, were George B. Lockwood, editor of the Republican campaign newspaper published here, and Joseph L. Hetherington, of the Stars and Stripes staff.

Republican fund raising in New York City, touched upon by William Joyce Thompson, chairman of the ways and means committee, of the Republican national committee, and others at previous hearings, also remained for consideration. The Republican committee heads actually in charge of it were to be heard if time permitted.

The investigation committee planned to examine further the expense accounts of government officials who were in San Francisco during the Democratic national convention.

Opening Stocks Leygues New French Premier

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—(Wall St. 10:20)—The stock market reflected more clearly at the opening of today's session the change of sentiment in speculative circles arising from the latest campaign against commodity prices. Pressure upon various issues, particularly metals, oils, shipping, rubbers and coppers, was actively resumed, many of these shares recording further losses of 1 to 2 points. Rails were more stable, recessions in that division being confined to fractions. A few leaders, notably the high priced oils, rallied within the first half hour. British sterling exchange was weak.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—William Smith, alias Robert Bosson, 39 year old counterfeiter, today was under a jail sentence at once year and a fine of one dollar, imposed in the United States district court, following his plea of guilty.

Smith said he had passed bad money in the hope of getting into jail as he was "well treated there."

COLEMBUS, O., Sept. 24.—Michigan draws the choice date on Ohio State's football schedule this fall—the Homecoming game, Ablett's Director L. W. St. John announced yesterday.

In their second engagement here since 1912, the Wolverines will furnish the choice morsel of the home games—November 6, the last date the Buckeyes perform on their own stamping ground this year.

The Purdue and Wisconsin contests also are expected to draw capacity crowds to Ohio field on October 10 and 23, respectively.

The Holtermaekers, for whom Dr. Wilke, the Ohio mentor, is already preparing, furnish the opposition on the occasion of the week of Ohio State's Semi-Centennial celebration when thousands of alumni and former students are expected to throng to the campus.

Early season reports have boosted Purdue stock considerably here and the Indians are looking to give the Buckeyes the acid test in the first Big Ten engagement of the fall.

Wisconsin, always a sharp thorn in the side of the Ohioans, is always greeted by a capacity mob.

Two recruits, without previous big-league experience, have kept the Cleveland Indians in the struggle for the American League baseball championship.

These two recruits are Walter Mails, the left-handed twister, recently purchased from the Sacramento club of the Pacific Coast league and Joe Sewell, the clever young shortstop.

Mails has won six straight games for the Indians and it would not be surprising if this Speaker gave the young pitcher a chance to show his wares in the present crucial series with the Chicago White Sox. Mails stepped into the breach just at the time when the Indians needed him most and has won a place in the hearts of the Cleveland fans for himself by his sterling work.

At the time when Cleveland got him, they did not possess a single dependable left-hander, in fact they haven't had one for years, and Mails took advantage of the chance offered to make good.

Harry Lentie, who stepped into the shortstop when Ray Chapman was killed, suddenly sprang a chaotic horse recently, and Speaker was forced to shove Javy Evans in at short. When things looked the darkest in Cleveland, the old man, New Orleans and he stepped in and immediately showed into the regular lineup.

Mails cost Jim Dunn, owner of the Indians in the neighborhood of $250,000

The stage is set for a hotly-contested battle when Portsmouth and Jackson High School eleven try the lid off the local football season in the initial fiasco in Millbrook Park Saturday afternoon. The game is scheduled to start at 2:00 o'clock.

Large Crowd Saw The Hard Hitting Contest; Benton The Real Star

Before practically every man, woman and child in Waverly, the All Stars of Portsmouth handed the "made-to-order" Pictograph by the score of 10 to 8, in what was one of the most exciting struggles ever. The wildness of Oscar DeLoett allowed the Waverly lads to make a respectable showing so far as offensive matters are concerned—otherwise the team would have done well to make an impression that would attract any particular attention.

While Portsmouth won, the boys were given a great reception and Manager Gibleman treated them to a fine chicken dinner at the Emmett house. All in all, the trip was hugely enjoyed and any time Waverly wants the boys to come back and put on an exhibition of skill, they'll all answer "aye." The score:

around playing featured the contest. He roamed all over the middle pastures and caught no less than five drives, all of which would have been good for extra bases swats had he not been so nimble of foot and clear of eye. His playing was a revelation to the staid people of Waverly, who wondered why on earth he was not with some of the big boys.

Waverly "loaded up" for fair for the game, expecting, of course, to trouble Portsmouth's best team. There was Frank Nesser on first, Rapp, of Columbus behind the bat, Luske at third—and all fans know who he is—Booth, of Columbus, at short, and our old friend, Wamzer Ricker, at second. The New York Giants will open a two-game series with Brooklyn at the Polo Grounds Saturday. The two teams will clash again at Brooklyn on September 30, October 1 and 2. The Giants are in fighting trim and are out for the series. If the Giants should take five straight games, four out of five from Brooklyn, the two teams would be running neck and neck for the National League pennant.

The purchase of minor league baseball players by the big league clubs has been so heavy that the National Commission has agreed to extend the time in which the major league clubs have to file their reserve lists from October 1 to November 1. Under the new limit no club is allowed to reserve more than forty players, whereas some at present have as many as fifty on their lists.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 21.—J. Mallie, manager of the Kentucky Jockey Club, announced today that the Kentucky Jockey Club would offer a purse of $25,000 and a gold cup of the value of $500 for a race to be run in Kentucky this fall between Man o' War, Sir Barton and Exterminator, the distance and condition of the race to be determined by the owners.

The Fullerton and Greenup ball teams will battle at Honey Island Sunday. McNulty will lead for Greenup, while Mitty Bowdy will work for Fullerton. Both teams are evenly matched and have won two games apiece. Bowdy has pitched good ball this season only losing three games in all. Fullerton has played 14 games and has won all but three.

For the home run king stated to the fans that he will play in his eighth season. "The fans come to see me play, why shouldn't I get part of the money that they will pay in my eighth season?" Smith asked.

Jackson To Present Strong Eleven

JACKSON, O., Sept. 24.—Blume will be here this year. Blume will not be here this year. He will not be. Blossum cure keeps us guessing, but it seems now for certain that we shall fear this stalwart center. He is going to Trenton, where no doubt he will be as big an aid to that school as he has been to old J. H. S. However, he will play in the Portsmouth game, and probably in the Nelsonville game. McCoy and Kellenbach seem to be the two most likely to take his place. The probable line-up of the team in the Portsmouth game will be: Harbarger and Peters as ends, Davis and White as tackles, McCoy and Johnson as guard, Blume, center, Jenkins and Evans as halves, Gilliland full back, and Callahan quarter. While this is the probable line-up it is by no means definite as Althar, Whitaker, Kallenbach, Perkins, Barlow, Loudon and Castle have been doing excellent work and may be chosen to fill any of the above places.

DESCHANELE'S RESIGNATION

There is an element of tragedy in the misfortune of ex-president Deschanele of France. Public opinion set against him and the one-time popular, immaculate man-of-the-world found himself a by-word throughout his country. His post was not an exacting one; its chief requisites are suavity and a sense of personal dignity. These attributes Deschanele possessed in a marked degree. Unlike the president of the United States, the French president is not an executive; but a symbol, with much the same limitations as the British king. The French presidency is an honor, and has come to be bestowed on men not too ardently identified with the heat of political warfare. Deschanele was, in his person, all that could be asked in the visible qualities of a president. A literary dilettante with a distinct social genius, he was not styled without reason the prince of boulevardiers. Moreover, he had his ambitions, shared by his wife. He regarded the presidency, probably, as the culmination of a distinguished career; she, scarcely more of a society leader than her distinguished husband, grasped it as placing the couple, at the head of their world.

The cause and circumstances of Deschanele's unhappy accident need not be discussed. It is the effect that matters. The truth is that although the president made pitiful overtures to be restored to normal opinion, France persisted in looking at him sideways. Affection didn't enter and critical curiosity did. Deschanele had just held his first reception as a timid proof of his recovery; and France whispered about it. Unkind rumors were to be found in every French organ, couched in the varying language of affected sympathy, public duty and veiled hostility, but all harping on the supposedly imminent resignation of the president, which they insistently assumed was certain.

And Deschanele didn't want to resign. His illness was not so lengthy nor so serious as that of President Wilson; and the French president's responsibilities do not begin to compare with those of America's executive. Yet France has been painted as the home of gallantry, and the United States as a land where political conduct is particularly ruthless. Europe may have its own definitions of gallantry. But in a case such as this loyalty seems to be an American ingredient.

PUNISHING PROFITEERS

For a long time now there has been much talk about profiteering in the necessities of life, and there have been demands that the profiteers be severely punished. When officials try to meet these demands they find themselves seriously handicapped. Many persons are quick to make charges of profiteering but they are not willing to back up their charges by becoming witnesses for the government.

The Lever law, under which prosecutions against profiteers are brought, is in itself a somewhat indifferent statement of the powers given to officials to regulate prices or to take action to compel the taking only of reasonable profits. Some federal judges dismiss cases that appear to the public to be plain instances of profiteering.

The public refused to buy sugar at the maximum price fixed by the holders of sugar and the price fell to a much lower level. Only the demands of the canning season sustained the market at present prices. The same treatment in other cases of exorbitant prices might have a similar effect.

New York - Day - By - Day

NEW YORK, September 24.—A salesman does in the summer time? Thoughts while strolling around New York: The faint haze of approaching Autumn. Soon he time for oysters. There goes August Belmont. An alert, chunky figure and a true sportsman. An Irish newsboy selling Yiddish newspapers. The summer loafers are leaving the Bryant Park benches. Wasn't it Stevenson who wrote of the joys of idling? A liveried limousine in front of a 5 and 10 cent store. Suppose the owner is inside slumming. A millionaire's son in a striped golf shirt like roadster, waiting at the Folies stage door. Stoopid old women in shawls selling theatrical weeklys. New York is becoming more like Paris. Small shops are taking the place of department stores. By actual count there are 54 shops in this block. A restaurant sign: "Hash, 18 cent. $1.00." Broadway has some new types of Indians. The real things. Flock here from Oklahoma to spend their oil profits. Take the finest rooms in hotels. They tip the size of their check at meals. Wonder what a fur salesman does in the summer time? Fussy dames in high powered cars. Shamelessly applying the rouge and powder. The bloody rich. There goes the actress who rented a suite in a fashionable hotel for a pet gold-fish. And the papers didn't print a line about it. The movie actresses have discarded the pet-dog dogs for the ungainly Russian wolfhounds. The marooned craze didn't last very long. The leaves are beginning to turn in Central Park. The brown stone houses are being opened. A lot of seashore idlers are back crying. "Cash girl! Thirty-six out of a dollar!" A great pile of foreign labeled trunks at the Plaza. I once bought a rock of labels to paste on my grip when I went back home. And they're still laughing about it. It didn't get over at all. Still you can't blame a guy for trying. To those who are superstitious about breaking looking glasses the following authentic story comes from Wall Street. It concerns a financier whose name is known on every longue. He slipped in his bathroom and in falling pushed a chair against a great mirror in the door, breaking it to pieces. He was superstitious and told the family about it at breakfast. When he reached the office he found a check for a half million that he had never expected to materialize. At lunch the board of directors notified him that he had earned a vacation and they presented him with a yacht—completely built and luxuriously furnished. And in the afternoon a daughter of whom he was unusually proud, announced that she was not going to marry a young man her father opposed.

One of those loosely conducted hotels in the Forties was visited by the police raiders about 3 o'clock the other morning. All the guests were aroused and told to report at the office down stairs. While the register showed patrons registered from as far away as Pekin, China, there were only four pieces of baggage in the house. And one of these was an elephantine trunk. There was not a single trunk in the hotel.

Great fortunes might be gained in Manhattan shopping districts in a day if our found the things that were lost by shoppers. Here is a record of an average day's loss in the Lost and Found columns of the Times: "Lost: containing $10,000; 1 diamond necklace; 1 long diamond and platinum chain; 1 gold bracelet with sapphires; 1 platinum bar pin with 25 diamonds; 1 diamond brooch with 52 diamonds; 14 platinum diamond rings; 1 sapphire coat; five wrist watches, one set with diamonds; 1 $5,000 Liberty Bond and a coin purse containing $150."

Had Enough. "My wife married me to reform me," stated Brother Hilsongier, "and I'm so plum bodaciously reformed that I wouldn't marry again if I done lived to be as old as Methusalem!"—Judge.

All Speech Consisted Of. She—"What did papa say when you told him of our engagement?" He—"Well—er—really, dear—" She—"Oh, you can leave out the swear words." He—"Then there's nothing to tell you."—Boston Transcript.

Compelling Curiosity. "What did you think of that movie star's acting?" "I didn't go to see the acting. I went to see what a person who can draw such an enormous salary looks like."

Reaction's come about in fashions recent: Now, girls conceal so little from the men That it would seem in name of all that's decent, Someone should pass the apples round again.

Between Friends. "Well, old human outta board," Irene Cobb is reported to have said to Sam Rytche in Chicago, "who will be the nominee?" "None of your business," said Rytche. "And if I didn't know you pretty well and like you, I wouldn't tell you even that."—New York Tribune.

MABEL BOARDMAN Great satisfaction has been expressed by prominent residents of the District of Columbia over the appointment of Miss Mabel Thorp Boardman, the noted Red Cross leader, to be a commissioner of the District of Columbia. Many point out that Miss Boardman's long residence at the national capital and her thorough knowledge of District of Columbia problems obviate the friction and bitterness which frequently accompanies political appointments to local plum.

This is the first time a woman has ever been appointed to this office, which is similar in many respects to the office of mayor of the large cities.

Miss Boardman was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and she is a college graduate and an author. Her Red Cross work has received recognition from the kings of Sweden and Italy, and the emperor of Japan.

The newly appointed commissioner also becomes a member of the public utilities commission and the zoning commission, two important branches of the local government.

MABEL BOARDMAN Great satisfaction has been expressed by prominent residents of the District of Columbia over the appointment of Miss Mabel Thorp Boardman, the noted Red Cross leader, to be a commissioner of the District of Columbia. Many point out that Miss Boardman's long residence at the national capital and her thorough knowledge of District of Columbia problems obviate the friction and bitterness which frequently accompanies political appointments to local plum.

This is the first time a woman has ever been appointed to this office, which is similar in many respects to the office of mayor of the large cities.

Miss Boardman was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and she is a college graduate and an author. Her Red Cross work has received recognition from the kings of Sweden and Italy, and the emperor of Japan.

The newly appointed commissioner also becomes a member of the public utilities commission and the zoning commission, two important branches of the local government.

Apple Time Again? When every pool in Eden was a mirror That unto Eve her dainty charms proclaimed. She went undraped without a single fear or thought that she had need to be ashamed.

Two's only when she'd eaten of the apple That she became inclined to be a prude. And found that evermore she'd have to scruple With the much debated problem of the nude.

Thereafter she devoted her attention. Her time and all her money to her clothes; And that was the beginning of convention. And modesty as well, I do suppose.

Reaction's come about in fashions recent: Now, girls conceal so little from the men That it would seem in name of all that's decent, Someone should pass the apples round again.

BILLY WHISKER

"Tricks!" said Billy in surprise. "I thought it wise for him to have just never heard of them. What are they?" When Dandy stopped talking. "Oh, you'll find out," said Dandy. "I can do a few of them myself. I can walk on my hind legs, and stand on my head, and roll a barrel, and now I'm learning to stand on a globe and roll it backwards and forwards." "My, but you are smart!" said Billy. "And does he ever flip you if you don't get them right?" Dandy laughed and tossed his head. "No, indeed," said he. "Billy never had a whip in his hand. He tells us, 'us glad to do anything he tells us.' 'If you know how, stupid,' croaked a new voice, and Billy looked up to see a lame black crow sitting in the window. "Should yourself, Tawlings," said the crow, but it was in a friendly tone. "You must have good times here," said Billy, smiling as he thought of all the places of trouble he had seen in his travels. "We do," replied Dandy. "Of course it isn't all play. Now I just came in from hoeing corn." "You mean that Bobby hoeed the corn while you pulled the hoe," croaked the crow. "Don't mind what he says Mr. Goat. He'll make you think that he does it all around here," and then, laughing heartily, the crow flapped his wings and flew away. Dandy laughed heartily. "He thinks he's a great mischief maker, but nobody gets angry at what he says. He doesn't mean a bit of harm by it." Just then Bobby came in with a pile of warm mash for Billy. The road hardly knew whether he liked it at the first taste, but as he ate more of it and felt it warming him up inside, he began to realize how good it was, and after he had eaten all that Bobby

Me and Bill went. Down to the picture show. The orchestra played "Over There" and Bill thought it was the national anthem. And stood up. So did I. Darn Bill.

The Shifting Statue. The destroyer Sharky, which arrived in New York harbor some days ago, dropped anchor near the Statue of Liberty on the starboard side, but during the night the tide shifted it about to the port side. This transformation was most perplexing to a rook who finally identified his problem to a C. P. O. "Well, you see, it's like this," the old timer informed him. "New York and Brooklyn both claim the statue, so to stop the argument the government lets New York have it one day and then moves it over to the Brooklyn side the next."

Dead to the World. The total lack of comprehension between the American negro and his Algerian brother will go down in history as one of the outstanding features of the war. There was, for instance, the case of the dusky stercorator at Brest, and one of the colored French troops on duty there. Took and laboriously the Yank tried to establish some means of linguistic communication, but there was no response. Then a brilliant thought struck the boy from Georgia. He produced a pair of ivory cubes and rolled them enticingly under the Algerian's nose. Intelligence still registered zero. "Man!" said Sam, in disgust. "You ain't no cultured pookoon. You ain't even human. You is just a coorse."

Salt Following. "Could you do something for a poor old sailor?" asked the seedy-looking wanderer at the gate. "Your old sailor?" echoed the lady at work at the tub. "Yes'm, I followed the wotter for sixteen years."

"Well," said the woman, after a critical look, "you certainly don't look as if you ever fought up with it." Then she resumed her labors.—The New Majority.
